ENGLISH APPREHENSIONS.—It is evident that the anxiety of the British public on account of the hostile designs imputed to the French Emperor, still continues although it is not so freely expressed in the journals as on some former occasions. The Liverpool Times of the 23d ult. has the following:

"It is really very important to know the truth of the reports about the extraordinary preparations for fitting out the Brest and Cherbourg fleets which are still so rife. Lord John Russell, it will be remembered, contradicted these reports in his place in Parliament. But it is even more confidently than ever asserted that such preparations are indeed going on—that orders have been given to build additional steam constructions of gunboats of a very suspicious description. Let us hope that the subject is not being overlooked at headquarters."

At a recent meeting in London, Sir Charles Napier concluded a speech on the insufficient defenses of the kingdom by saying how easy a thing it was for a man like the Emperor Napoleon to embark an island an army on the English shores when he could do such things as he had lately done at Genoa.

The following is from Mrs. Partington's new book, issued from the press of Messrs. Brown, Taggard & Chase of Boston:

"WATERING PLACES.—'Are you going to any watering place this summer?' asked a young friend of Mrs. Partington, on one of the rainy days the present week. She had just shut up the window, to keep out the damp and disagreeable air, and pulled her handkerchief up over her shoulder, to keep off the chill. 'Watering places,' said she, with a gentle tap on her box at the same time looking at Ike, who was engaged in making a kite out of the last Puritan Recorder that the dame had laid by for her Sunday reading, 'Watering places I don't think much of, now-a-days. There aint no need of 'em since the lucy-motives have run off with the stages, but once, as the old pumps stood by the wayside under the umbrageous trees, with a hollow log for the cattle to drink out of, it seemed like a horses in a desert, as some of 'em used to say.' 'My dear madam,' said her young friend, 'I mean the fashionable watering places where people go to spend summer.' 'Oh,' she replied, 'that's it, is it? Well, we needn't go away from home to find a watering place to-day; and them that do, depend upon it,' and here she laid her mouth close to his ear, and spoke in a whisper, 'they go for something else besides the water.' She gave him a queer look as she said this, and pointed significantly to the little buffet in the corner, where an old fashioned cut glass decanter stood, surrounded by a half a dozen little glasses, as if they were young decanters just hatched out; but what she meant we'll not attempt to explain. Ike just then finished his kite by burning the holes for the bells band with the small point of Mrs. Partington's scissors, that had been heated red hot for the purpose."

THE ITALIAN CONFEDERATION.—The new Confederation, which the sword of Napoleon has carved out, and reconstructed into an Empire, will consist of Population.

Sardinia, Continental,	4,318,136
The Island,	567,948
Milanese Lombardy,	2,725,740

Popedom,	2,808,115
Naples, Sicily,	6,012,862
	2,231,566

There are besides, Monaco, with the principality of 6,800 inhabitants; San Marino, a republic of 7,600 people; Corsica, belonging to France, of 236,251 inhabitants; and Malta, which is garrisoned by English troops, and has 123,270 inhabitants.

APPOINTMENT OF MISSIONARIES.—The Executive Committee of the American Baptist Missionary Union have recently appointed three missionaries to the foreign field. They are Rev. Henry A. Sawtelle, recently of Limerick, Me., who will go to Hong Kong, China; and two members of the graduating class of the Hamilton Theological Institution, Mr. Horace Jenkins, a native of Massachusetts, and Mr. James R. Haswell, a native of Burmah, a son of Rev. J. M. Haswell, of the Maulmain Burman Mission. Mr. Jenkins will go to China, and Mr. Haswell to Burmah, where his father is laboring in the missionary work.

ACCIDENT ON MOUNT WASHINGTON.—We learn that a party who left the summit of Mount Washington, to visit the Snow Arch in Tuckerman's Ravine, on Wednesday, 31 inst., found a man lying upon a rock, with his leg broken. His name was not reported. He had started alone to explore the unfrequented portions of the mountain, and his misfortune bears fresh witness to the danger of such adventures. If a storm of two or three days had overtaken him, he must have perished.—Transcript.

At Bristol, Conn., a few evenings since, a company of negro minstrels had a crowded house, but at the close of the entertainment, it was found that the majority of the audience had entered the windows by means of ladders, instead of calling upon the doorkeeper outside. Cheap, but not very honest.

TIME. What a great waste of time in this world. It would require still a greater waste to find another word in the English language that will form such an Anagrammatic Palindrome as the word time.

T I M E
I T E M
M E T I
E M I T

It is made into four different English and Latin words—can be read from right to left—up and down—and still read the same words.

THE DROUGHT IN IRELAND.—A letter from Dublin says:

For several years there have not been so long continued a drought and so hot a summer as the present. There have been alarming reports of the effects on the harvest, but I find on inquiry, that these accounts are exceedingly exaggerated. Still, however, the crops have suffered to some extent from the want of rain, and the hay crop especially will be a short one. Some acres of hay, near the Phoenix Park, belonging to the Earl of Eglington, which was very thin and coarse in the grass, has been sold at a very low price, equivalent to £3 per acre. Where the hay crop is anything like an average produce it sells for £12 per acre. In various districts oats are very short and poor, and a portion of the potatoes are stunted in growth from the want of moisture, but I hear no complaints about the quality of any of the crops except oats; and as the markets continue moderate with abundant su pplies, we may infer that there is no real cause for apprehension about the harvest now approaching. This country is unusually prosperous, and the people are not easily frightened.

Since the announcement of peace there has been a gradual improvement in our wool markets, which have been very sluggish, with lower prices than had prevailed for a considerable time. English buyers are now coming over, but French Agents have been actively purchasing for some weeks past.

Yesterday evening there were indications of the change of weather so long wished for, although the heat still continues very oppressive. Last night and this morning there were some droppings of rain, but there was not even a single shower to refresh the parched earth.

WARREN W. RICE, Chairman

Hampden, Aug. 6, 1859.

GROUTY. This may not be a dictionary word, but it is very significant of some men and some newspapers. The Boston Courier, which is apt to grow at everything, says—"We thank God, and a better age, that there have been other commemorative days at Plymouth, and that Tuesday's oratory is not the only Pilgrim lauding jubilation to which we are limited, and which we are obliged to remember."

The editor's "gorge rises" at a compliment to Beecher and Cheever, as "thundering in the pulpit," and he thinks "it is time to pray for deliverance, and seek among the Adamses and the Spr ngs a real devotion." A reference to Horace Greeley calls forth a voluntary fugue set to the following words—"Why think of Greeley when discoursing upon the virtues of the Pilgrims, and forget Webb and Halleck, and Morris, and Raymond; and Bennett, too, who, though abused much, is a better citizen, and a higher examplar and truer guide and friend to his country than that flashy charlatan." The term "flashy charlatan" is hardly the phrase we should have applied to Greeley, any more than that of "higher examplar" to Bennett, of the New York Herald. But there is no disputing about tastes—and no contending with an editor who can "pile on the agony" in such rising inflections of adjuncts and epithets as are found in the first sentence of an article immediately following, upon Caleb Cushing; "Mr. Cushing's letter from Mount Zephyr, dated on the 4th of July, is a rare, eccentric, original, instructive, and altogether admirable production."

We thought the Plymouth celebration would have to take it, when we saw that the principal editor of the Courier was not invited to participate in the ceremonies. Probably the Committee will get over it as well as Dr. Johnson did, when Andrew Millar, the bookseller, "thanked God he had done with him," and Johnson replied that he was "glad he had the grace to thank God for anything."

The same copy of the Courier says of the late Hon. Horace Mann, that he "assailed the course of Daniel Webster, and aspersed his character with a pertinacious virulence which knew no rest, and was scarcely reconciliable with the possession of a sound heart or sound mind."

Of this the Courier gives no example, in the way of proof—but its neighbor the "Atlas & Bee" (a first-rate paper, by the way, for enterprise and ability) refers to the controversy between Mr. Mann and Mr. Webster, which had its origin in the compromise measures of 1850, and the speech of the 7th of March, and admits the party feeling which entered into it, and the spice of satire and bitterness which sometimes characterized the former gentleman. It goes on to add—what shows Mr. Webster to have been clearly wrong in point of fact—that "Mr. Webster said, in that remarkable speech, 'I would not take pains to uselessly reaffirm an ordinance of nature, or to re-enact the will of God'—meaning thereby that the character of the soil and the climate of New-Mexico rendered the establishment of Slavery a physical and moral impossibility. To this, Mr. Mann, in his speech in the House against the Compromises, and in reply to Mr. Webster's speech, said, that it was 'undertaking to settle by mountains and rivers, and not by the ten commandments, the question of public duty. Cease (he added) to transcribe upon the statute-book what our wisest and best men believed to be the will of God in regard to our worldly affairs, and the passions which we think appropriate to devils will soon take possession of society.' This Mr. Webster regarded as a total perversion of the meaning of his remark, and spoke of Mr. Mann with great severity.

Time has shown the fallacy of Mr. Webster's reasoning in regard to New Mexico, and the fact that Slavery can manage to override the ordinance, of nature and the law of God. Mr. Mann's presumption, in point of satire, proves to have been no more out of the way, than Mr. Webster's assumption in point of fact.

The querulousness of the Courier is no good evidence of the correctness of the one, or the error of the other—

"Let Hercules himself do what he may,
The cat will mew, the dog will have his day."

THE CROPS IN GREAT BRITAIN.—The question of the crops in Great Britain is one of great importance to the United States, affecting more or less the interests of every producer and consumer in the country. The Liverpool advices to the 22d July state that the weather continued very hot, with violent thunder stormes and rain.

"Some damage is reported to wheat and barley, but all green crops will be much benefitted. Harvesting has commenced in early districts, and will soon be general. It is yet too soon to form a correct estimate of the crops, but the popular opinion is that wheat is a good crop in England—perhaps not so large as last year—in Scotland and Ireland, a large crop. Spring grain and root crops have suffered, owing to long continued dry weather. In Scotland and Ireland oats are reported as very short in the straw, and prematurely ripe. Potatoes are not so good as last year, when the crop was enomous, and of superior quality. In some districts hay and grass are deficient. In France the wheat crop is not expected to be so larger or of such good quality as last year. Spain, which has been an importer the last three years, has an abundant harvest. The last crop of Indian corn in the Danubian Principalities was very large, and shipments are now in progress on a liberal scale. Farmers still hold a good deal of last crop, and the stock of foreign (principally French) wheat and flour, is very heavy in all the ports. Assuming our harvest to be very well secured, there is every prospect of a continuance of low prices. The next few weeks will decide."

THE GOLDEN IMAGES FROM CENTRAL AMERICA. A Boston correspondent of the Worcester Transcript, has seen specimens from the new gold diggings in the Indian graves of Central America, which he thus describes:—

"One of the images is that of a frog, nearly as large as life, and very natural, and weighing perhaps two ounces. Another was a figure 'neither fish, flesh nor fowl,' nearly of the same weight and handsomely wrought. The third specimen was a perfect image of a man in a nude state, and the work upon it was most finely done.

The "chasing" of the cranium upon his head and other portions of the body was handsomely done, and shows that in past ages (and how long since no one can tell) this most ornamental style of finish was in a high state of perfection among a race and a nation now blotted out from existence. One of the images shews a specimen of gold beating in one of its appendages, and that was also thoroughly done. Upon the head of the frog, were two little bells, which still tinkle at your touch, while the fastenings or loops upon them, all show that they were probably suspended from the necks of the deceased, as charms are worn by many of the present day.

MERCHANTS' INSURANCE COMPANY. The annual meeting of this Company, was held on Wednesday. The old Board were unanimously re-elected, and at a subsequent meeting of the Board, Mark Howard, President, and E. Thos. Lobdell, Secretary, were both re-elected unanimously. The financial statement showed a very prosperous year's business, fully sustaining the high expectations formed of this institution when it was organized. The Directors were authorized, at such time as they shall deem expedient to increase the capital stock, as provided in the charter, to half a million dollars, and, from what we hear, we think this intimation will soon be followed by a substantial addition to the present capital, which is $200,000, and is now fully paid up in cash.—Hartford Press.

John S. Chadwick, Esq., of this city, is the Agent for the above Company, and may be found at the office of the Bangor Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of which he is the Secretary.

ALABAMA has again elected an entire Democratic delegation to Congress, as follows:—

1st District—James A. Stallworth, 800 maj.
2d " James L. Pugh.
3d " David Clopton, 200 maj.
4th " Sydenham Moore.
5th " George S. Houston.
6th " W. R. W. Cobb.
7th " J. L. M. Curry.

Pugh and Clopton are new members. All the others were members of the last Congress.

Andrew B. Moore, Dem., is re-elected Governor, by a large majority.

"FREE ITALY."—This subject is well illustrated in the last number of Punch. Italy is represented by a female with heavy chains about the right arm and ankle by which she is made fast at Venetia, upon which the Emperor of Austria, who stands at her side has his foot, while he holds in his hands the keys of her shackles. Upon the other side stands Louis Napoleon in the act of placing upon her head the heavy "triple" crown that, from appearances, as it slides over head, face, and throat, will soon become to the unfortunate wearer a most effectual extinguisher.

On Wednesday morning the police of New York were informed that a family in Forty-fourth street was living in a state of entire destitution. On investigating the case, four children, three girls and a boy, were found with no clothing but shirts, and those black with dirt. The condition of the mother was no better; and the father was no where to be found. Both of the parents were, of course, intemperate.

The Burlington (Vt) Times states that Mrs Brackman, of Huntingdon, who about seventeen months since gave birth to four children, has recently given birth to three more—all doing well.

Commander R. Semmes, Secretary of the Lighthouse Board, has left Washington on a brief tour of inspection on the eastern coast, extending from Boston to Calais.

Wm. E. Phillips, tried at Washington for counterfeiting the frank of Senator Douglas, was acquitted by the Jury, notwithstanding the charge was proved, because they believed the prisoner's object in using the frank was not to defraud the government, but to use the Senator's name as a recommendation. The franks were used on business circulars sent to the West.

A man named Wickliffe was convicted last week, in Greenville, S. C., of slandering a handsome woman named Gillie Gunter, and fined a thousand dollars for his impertinence. It appears that the plaintiff was engaged to be married to the son of a neighbor, a worthy and clever gentleman. The defendant, who was a neighbor, and regarded as a friend to the father of the young man, told the father that the girl to whom his son was engaged was not virtuous, and he felt it his duty as a neighbor and a friend to tell him so. This information caused the match to be broken off, whereupon the plaintiff brought her action.

VARIOUS ITEMS.

Steps are in progress for the organization of a land company in London, with a capital of £600,000 sterling, to be devoted to the purchase and settlement of lands in Illinois. The Prairie Land and Emigration Company state that a conditional purchase has been made of 250,000 acres of prairie land, from the Illinois Central Railroad Company.

The London Times sums up the results of the peace thus:

"The treasure is spent and the blood is shed, the war is ended, and the peace is made; but no one so far as we can see, is the better for the fight."

It is estimated that upwards of $800,000 worth of cotton has been lost by fires at sea within the past year—mostly occasioned by the use of oil in the cotton presses at New Orleans or on shipboard.

A correspondent writing from Niagara Falls says that where the Suspension Bridge originally sagged only two or three inches under the weight of a train, it now sags nearly twenty inches. The general impression in the neighborhood is that this great work of art will one of these days give way and fall into the river.—Visitors now walk over the bridge, instead of crossing in the trains as formerly.

AN EDITOR DROWNED. Tuesday last, C. Edwards, Esq., editor of the Marengo (Iowa) Visitor, was drowned while bathing in the Iowa River at that place. He had his little son on his back, when he is supposed to have been seized with a cramp and sank to rise no more. The child was saved.

A Western correspondent says, there is one feature which is apparent all over the West; while the towns and cities have diminished in business and population, the country has increased in both. Men who could not live in town have gone out upon the prairies, put their hands to the plow, and determined that it is better to raise wheat at fifty cents per bushel, than it is to trade on credit with no securities and no pay.

One of the most valuable of the lead mines at Galena, on the land of S. Hughlett, yielded last year 775,000 pounds of mineral. The amount taken this year is 260,000 pounds, and it is expected the yield will reach at least 600,000.

The capital employed in the St. Louis beer breweries is nearly $200,000. The number of breweries in the city is thirty-five, and those produced last year 115,000 barrels of lager, and 74,000 barrels of common beer.

A lady, after performing with the most brilliant execution, a fantasia on the pianoforte, in the presence of Dr. Johnson, turning to the philosopher, took the liberty of asking him if he was fond of music? "No, madam," replied the doctor, "but of all noises I think music is the least disagreeable."

Unquestionably the greatest among female vocalists was Gertrude Schmaling, afterwards Madame Mara, who attributed her wonderful skill to the almost incessant practice of the scale in long notes. On one occasion when an individual was being recommended to her on account of her great power and agility, she inquired, true to the lesson of her experience, "Can she sing six plain notes?"

MINERALS OF SCOTLAND.—The Mining Journal states, on eminent practical authority, that the hills in the south-west of Scotland abound with lodes of lead, blende, copper, and iron, as well as sulphur; and that mercury has been detected among the minerals found in the rocks adjoining the granite ranges.

Don't expect to be called a good fellow a moment longer than you consent to do precisely what other people wish you to do.

TO CLEAN KNIVES.—The most simple and best way, is to rub the brick dust on them with half of a raw potato. There appears to be some virtue in the juice of the potato which aids in clearing the steel. A friend of humanity and a lover of bright knives, asks us to give this valuable receipe a place.

SHIP BREMEN. The Union says—"We yesterday had the pleasure of visiting this large and splendid half clipper ship, now lying in Paulk's dock, and receiving a cargo of lumber. She is about 1000 tons burthen, and is most thoroughly and indeed elegantly built and finished throughout. She is owned by Messrs. J. F. W. Iken & Co., Bremen, Europe, and is commanded by Capt. Myer of the same city. She is five years old. Her crew consists of 28 all told. They are all Germans. She is consigned to ISAAC M. BRAGG, Esq., of our city, who is freighting her with perhaps the largest cargo of lumber which has ever left Bangor, viz: over 600,000 feet. We were struck with the care which Mr. Bragg takes in seeing that every board is perfectly dry and of the precise quality contracted for, before it goes on board. This is rendered necessary on account of the long voyage which the Bremen must make before she reaches her destination, Calao, on the Pacific coast.

TORNADO IN NORWAY. During the shower on Thursday afternoon in Norway, a gale of wind swept over the town, which unroofed a part of Deacon James Flint's barn and piled up the timbers thirty rods from the barn. It also raised a 20×20 feet wood-shed belonging to C. A. Noyes, and carried it seven or eight rods, completely demolishing it, and tore up and destroyed forty of his large, choice fruit trees.

Messrs. Wheeler & Lynde:

I see you notice our friend Lane's wheat as very wonderful for tall stalks and early maturity.

As I cannot send you a specimen stalk of my wheat, I will tell you, and through you, friend Lane, that I have a field upon which, on the 26th of April I sowed nine bushels of "Canada Club" wheat. That wheat was in full blossom on the 4th inst., and yesterday we commenced harvesting it. Some of it is not quite ripe enough for the cradle, but will be in a very few days. It is a handsome field of wheat, and will give a very fair yield, as this kind always does. I have cultivated it some six years, and have never found it in the least injured by weevil or midge; and as it never lodges, it will bear to be grown on richer soil than any other variety I have ever cultivated.

THE WESTERN ELECTIONS.—Though we hear but little from the Kentucky election, there seems to be no doubt that the Democracy have gained, rather than lost, on their position after the previous elections. They pretended to more thorough-going friends of slavery than the Democracy, whereas they are not, and the people know it. The course of the opposition party in Tennessee has been much more creditable.—Boston Journal.

VICTORIA BRIDGE.—The dam for No. 11 pier, being the last and only one of which the foundations are not laid, was pumped dry yesterday, and the event duly celebrated on the bed of the river St. Lawrence; a numerous party of the friends of the contractors were present, and champagne flowed in abundance. The successful formation and drying of this dam removes the only physical obstacle to the completion of the bridge.—Montreal Gazette, Aug. 4.

Science Confounded AND THE WORLD ASTOUNDED! BY THE Great Cures

Made by DR. NORCROSS' CELEBRATED REMEDIES!

Thousands who have been laid low by disease will attest to their healing powers. By the use of them they have been restored to health and vigor, and their gratitude is unbounded. Oh, could the world be wise—throw aside the poisonous and deleterious medicines they now use, which serve to reduce their physical strength, and bring on weakness and debility, and numberless other troubles—and take the long sought for medicines, which operate upon the whole system like a charm, and which are emphatically, as every one who ever used them will testify—

A sovereign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.

O, for once be wise—don't longer delay. Delays are dangerous, and while you are taking the poisonous drugs, the disease may have so far progressed as to make it too late for hope. Now is the time to buy and try my medicines, and again to enjoy the blessings of health. Try them—and you will never have cause to repent of it.

Dr. A. L. Norcross' Medicines.

Sugar Coated Vegetable Bilious Pills.

In bringing this Medicine before the public, I have no desire to extol its medical properties above what it honestly deserves. I have used them in my practice for the last twenty years, and have ever found them to be a sure remedy in eradicating disease from the system. Thousands who have used them would willingly attest to their healing qualities. Therefore I have no hesitation in warranting them to be the best Cathartic now before the public.—These Pills have more than a simple claim on the public, for the following reasons: They are purely vegetable. They cause no pain or griping, although they are certain in their operations, and are perfectly harmless for male or female in any condition, for they do not weaken, but strengthen the whole system, by exciting every organ to a healthy action. They are also a sure remedy for all diseases that arise from impurities of the blood—such as Inflammation of the Liver, Kidneys, Bowels, Spleen, Bladder Rheumatism, Bowel Complaints, Jaundice, Headache, Loss of Appetite, Languor, Debility, and last of all, warranted a sure cure for Dyspepsia, in all its forms, if they are taken judiciously. Numerous certificates might be had testifying to their good properties, but I feel willing to let them stand on their own merits. Single box 25 cts—5 boxes $1.

JAUNDICE ELIXIR.

To purify, cleanse, and strengthen the Blood, and cause a healthy action of the Liver. Good in all cases of Debility. Warranted a sure cure for Jaundice. Price 50 cents.

GERMAN PILE SALVE.

This Salve is a safe and sure cure for this most distressing, and in many cases, dangerous disorder, which has baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of this country. It is prepared wholly of vegetable and animal substances, and can be used with perfect safety in all cases. Those afflicted with this most troublesome of disorders will here find that relief which has been denied them from other sources. One box will generally cure the most confirmed case. Numerous certificates might be had from those who have sought and obtained relief, proving its value and efficacy. Price 50 cents per box.

CROTON LINIMENT.

For Chronic and Rheumatic Complaints.—This Liniment is a sure remedy for Headache, Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Spinal Affections, Palsy, Chilblains, &c. Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied invalid examine its qualities, and they will not be disappointed. Years of study and investigation have enabled the proprietor of the Croton Liniment to furnish a remedy extraordinary in its power over disease, no matter of how long standing. Price 50 cents.

Prepared only by the subscriber, at his Laboratory, at Brown's Corner, Vassalboro', Maine, to whom all orders must be directed. ☞ None genuine but those purchased of me or my agents.

Ladies' Gaiter Boots.

A little glove stirs up my heart as tides stir up the ocean,
And snow-white muslin, when it fits, wakes many a curious notion;
All sorts of lady fixings thrill my feelings, as they'd orter,
But little female gaiter-boots are death, and nothing shorter:

And just to put you on your guard,
I'll give you, short and brief,
A small hotel experienced,
Which filled my heart with grief;
Last summer, at the Bangor House,
I stopped a week or more,
And marked two "boot-jacs" every morn
Before my neighbor's door;
Two boots with patent leather tips—
Two boots which seemed to say,
"An angel trots around in us"—
They stole my heart away;
And often in my nightly dreams
They swept before my face,
A lady growing out of them,
As flowers grow from a vase.
But ah! one noon I saw a sight
Which struck me like a stone,
Some other name was on the book—
Those boots were not alone!
A great tall pair of other boots
Were standing by their side,
And off they walked that afternoon,
And with them walked—a bride.

Ladies, comment is unnecessary. Those Gaiter Boots came from MILLETT & BANGS, No. 19 West Market Square.

FROM EUROPE.

Four Days Later.

ARRIVAL OF THE

STEAMSHIP NOVA-SCOTIAN OFF FARTHER POINT.

FARTHER POINT, Aug. 7.

The steamship Nova-Scotian has passed this point en route for Quebec. She sailed from Liverpool at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 27th. The Fulton was to leave Southampton the same day, for New York.

Nothing of moment had transpired in regard to the conference at Zurich, nor is it known whether Sardinia would take part. A dispatch of the 25th, from Berne, however, says that representatives of three powers were expected to meet at the end of July.

It was vaguely rumored in Paris on the 25th that Napoleon would visit London.

The Daily News believes that although the scheme of Italian confederation may not have been formally struck out of the programme, it is not now insisted on by its author, and that little more will be heard of it.

The French fleet had sailed from Lissina, and it was reported that a portion of the French army had begun to leave Italy.

Count Persigny had arrived at Paris from London. It is said he took with him the assurance that England would give her adhesion to Congress on condition of a general and immediate disarmament.

The Paris correspondent of the Times is informed that the English government offered to send representatives to Congress, provided that France disarmed; and that the French Emperor agreed to do so on condition that England did the same; and that England consented on condition of a general disarmament by land and sea; that France will begin the movement; and that the English Government is very well satisfied with the conduct of the French Emperor.

The Independence Belge gives a report that the proposition of disarmament proceeded, in the first instance, from Napoleon.

It is asserted that a military convention between France and Austria, relative to Italy, has been concluded, and that Lombardy is to take a fair share of the national debt.

The Paris Moniteur of the 26th, contains the following:—"It is endeavored in England to attribute to France the causes of English national burdens; but the English people are deceived, merely in order to further the national defences. Exaggeration of our armaments is to justify a considerable increase of the budget; for army and navy comparison of budgets between England and France will show these considerations to have been erroneous. Since 1816, the army expenses of England have increased by 200,000,000 francs, making for 1860, a total of more than 650,000,000 francs, while the French army budget for 1860 does not exceed 363,000,000. One therefore asks whether it is France and her extraordinary armaments that the heavy burdens which weigh on the English people are to be attributed, or whether those enormous expenses and taxes which are consequents of those burdens must not be attributed to other reasons."

The Paris correspondent of the Herald says there is something like 200,000,000 francs unexpended out of the late loan, and it is understood that the surplus is to be applied to the navy.

The Paris Patrie referring to the above article from the Moniteur, says, France has done everything to free England from the nightmare of invasion, in order to restore her calmness and repose. If unsuccessful, England can only blame herself for fears which agitate her, and which, if prolonged, would be an affront to the sincerity and friendly feelings and actions of France.

The Post's Paris correspondent says, there is the same disposition as ever, in official quarters, to assure England that the Emperor and his advisers consider the Anglo-French alliance, now as ever, necessary for the tranquility and prosperity of Europe.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says, it was reported that Walewski had drawn out a plan for the confederation of Italy, and submitted it confidentially to the Cabinet. It consists of seven States, and the presidency is given nominally to the Pope; but really to the kings of Sardinia and Naples alternately. The strong places to be garrisoned by the federal troops are Gaeta, Mantua and Piacenza. Votes in the federal Diet are to be distributed as follows—Parma and Modena 1 each; Pope 2; Tuscany 2; Sardinia and Naples 3 each.

Britain.

In House of Lords on 25th:

Lord Lyndhurst, after defending himself from charges made against him by Mr. Bright on account of the warning voice he had raised, asked if the admiralty was aware that the French were arming their fleet with rifled cannon.

Duke Somerset said he believed rifled cannon were being prepared for the French fleet and that although England had improved cannon in the course of manufacture, it would not be ready for some time to come.

In House of Commons Mr. Alderly advocated improved defenses for colonies by means of increased local forces.

Sydney Herbert said government had ordered inquiry on the subject.

Sir Delacy Evans moved a resolution that in view of relations between great military powers of the continent a commission be appointed to enquire into the national defenses of England and report what improvements may be made therein.

Sydney Herbert said government would assent to the substance of the resolution, but not the motion itself.

Government was about to appoint a committee the names of which would be a guarantee for earnestness of endeavors to place great arsenals of the country in a state to resist all attacks.

Palmerston said it would be too extensive an enquiry for commission to consider what force would be necessary for the defence of the country. Their would only supersede what permanent fortifications were required for defence of dockyards and arsenals. Evans' resolution was negatived.

Proceedings of both houses on 26th were unimportant.

A fire at Liverpool on 26th destroyed the extensive north shore flour and rice mills. Four lives lost, many injured. Loss 50,000 to 60,000 pounds, including large quantities of grain.

A fire occurred same day in brandy vaults, London Docks. Damage very considerable and several lives reported lost.

A deputation from the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society, headed by Lord Brougham had an interview with the Duke of New Castle, and urged to coolies emigration to West Indies. Lord Brougham urged the appointment of a committee of enquiry, but the Duke said time would not permit this session, but official enquiry should be instituted in colonies.

At public meeting at Galway a letter was read from the Treasury department saying government could not comply with demand to make Galway a harbor of refuge.

Latest by telegraph—London, Wednesday.—News city article says funds opened Tuesday with increased firmness, at fresh advance of [illegible] taking exception to [illegible] and naval expenditure of England then [illegible] known, and fall of quarter occurred in [illegible]. From this there was no recovery, and quotations were eighth below Monday. [illegible] markets a tendency to improvement in morning, followed by dulness in [illegible]. Demand for money continues steady. [illegible] discount houses are dissatisfied [illegible] bills below 2½ per cent. 195,000 pounds gold has been withdrawn from bank since last return.

The Times city article says, after various minor fluctuations, consols closed at a decline of one quarter. The article in the Moniteur exercised a depressing effect. A continuance of the slight drain of gold from the bank which has set in was likewise against the market. Money was in good supply, and the demand for silver rather slackened.

A Paris telegram, dated Tuesday evening, to the London Post, says that Sardinia has named as her plenipotentiary at Zurich, M. Des Ambrois, a very enlightened man. It is expected he will visit Paris before proceeding to his destination. Austria, however, refuses to meet any Sardinian representative, but will leave it open to Sardinia to accede to the treaty after it shall have been concluded by Austria and France.

The Grand Duke of Tuscany has expressed his willingness to abdicate in favor of his son, who promises a constitution; but Tuscans object altogether to a dynasty.

The Herald has the best authority for stating that the Grand Duke Constantine will soon visit England.

Official accounts of the London Dock fire show only about fifty casks of brandy destroyed.—Many persons were prostrated by heat, but no lives lost.

France.

It is said that the Emperor will make his public entry into Paris on Sunday, August 14th, at the head of part of the army of Italy.

The Duke of Malakoff has been appointed Grand Chancellor of the Legion of Honor.

The Emperor has granted a pension of 3000 francs, from his private purse, to the mother of General Anger, killed in Italy.

It is reported that 200,000 men are to be discharged from the army, on renewable furlough, the advantage being that government will have them still in hand, while their cost can be diverted to other purposes.

The Moniteur de la Flotte, government organ, says, Denmark has ceded the Island of St. Thomas to the United States.

The Bourse had been animated and higher, but on 26th, articles in Moniteur on armaments caused re-action and prices declined one-fourth. Rentes closed flat at 67 90.

Sardinia.

Le Nord says one of the first acts of the new Sardinian Ministry will be to put an end to the present dictatorship to convoke Chambers and present an electoral bill applicable to Lombardy. Dissolution will afterwards take place in order to effect in new Chambers completely the fusion of Piedmont and Lombardy.

The King will reside and Parliament sit alternate years at Turin and Milan.

The Turin journals say the Sardinian army reinforced by recruitments in Lombardy is to be raised to 100,000 men.

Italy.

In regard to Garibaldi's position, it is said he was on the 15th summoned to Brescia by Gen. Della Marmora with whom he had a long confidential interview that he had a force of twelve thousand men which continued to increase and that he expressed confidence in the King of Sardinia not forsaking national cause.

Letters from Rome assert that the principle of Italian Confederation has been accepted by the Pope. A majority of cardinals, in conference, voted in favor of the Pope accepting the Presidency. The French Ambassador had an extraordinary audience of the Pope of two hours duration.

By the steamer Habana which arrived yesterday we have advices from Vera Cruz to the 28th, and from Mexico to the 19th ult. Miramon had issued a manifesto in which he promises to protect the clergy in their power and wealth, favors the plan of a dictorial government and declares it to be the traditional policy of Mexico to guard against the encroachments of the United States.

Mr. McLane had sent only the skeleton of a treaty to Washington and that was unsigned.

The Tehauntepec Company continued to be annoyed by the authorities in consequence of which the mail would probably be suspended soon.

Gen. Zuazua was approaching San Luis Potosi with 5000 men, and Miramon's troops were concentrating at Regenator. It was reported that some grand movement was afoot.

NOW READY! HISTORY AND DESCRIPTION —OF— New England, VOLUME ONE, 1050 pp. Embracing the States of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont.

By A. J. Coolidge and J. B. Mansfield.

THIS Work is designed to afford a graphic but correct picture of every Town and County in New England, in a historical, topographical and statistical point of view. Almost every town of New England will here recognize the familiar names of its ancestors, or neighbors, among those who were early settlers, or have acted a prominent part in the history of its native place. More than eight hundred and fifty towns are described in the first volume, each occupying space according to its importance, varying from one fourth of a page to ten pages. Its value is enhanced by the fact that every town, however unimportant, has a place, as have also the villages and post-offices, easy reference to which is found in a very copious and carefully prepared Index.

In addition to the body of the work appears a supplementary account of towns and plantations in Northern Maine, particularly in Aroostook county; a full list of works on General and Local History; a Table of Lights on the Coast, with their relative positions and signals; the names of the Presidents of the United States, Presidential candidates, and the Popular vote for each of Presidential Electors, and the Electoral votes; of Governors and Gubernatorial candidates; and the votes for each; and of members of Congress; all from the organization of the several States to the present time. It is illustrated with upwards of Eighty Beautiful of Cities, Villages, and places which are particularly interesting; also plans of their Historical associations; besides which it contains a carefully drawn and handsomely engraved

Township Map of each of the States.

This work is, beyond comparison, the ablest, and at the same time the most popular, work on New England History that has ever been presented to the American public.—Portland Daily Advertiser.

"I have examined the first volume of the "History of New England," and am surprised at the amount of labor that has been expended upon the work, and the fullness and accuracy with which the numerous statistics have been prepared. The mechanical execution and the illustrations are honorable to the artist, and add to the pleasure of consulting the work."—Wm. Willis, President of Maine Historical Society.

"I am truly gratified with the appearance of your History and Description of New England. It contains a vast amount of matter of great interest and value to the people of New England, which has never before been published and is now made easily accessible to all. Your book is deserving of a wide circulation, and I think you need have no doubt that an appreciating public will with which you have to deal will triumphantly sustain you in the great enterprise in which you are engaged."—Jos. W. McKeen, Secretary and Treasurer Maine Historical Society.

Published by Austin S. Coolidge, 30 Court street, Boston.

SLATE!

THE Bangor and Piscataquis Slate Company, having completed their arrangements for the manufacture of SLAB SLATE, are prepared to receive orders for any dimension which may be required, from a "paper weight" to a "Billiard Table."

The endless variety of uses to which this article may be applied, will readily occur to the artisan, and indeed to every observer of the progress of modern improvement in the arts of life.

Counters for Shops, Shelves, Hearths, Tables for Printers, Black Boards for Schools, are among the many purposes for which this article will be in demand.

The peculiar texture or grain of the stone from the Brownville quarry, being entirely free from those quarts, or cross grains, which are apt to disfigure almost all other slates, renders the surface of the manufactured article smooth and true, and it is insisted, and probably will not be denied, that it is the best Slate in the known world.

Having recently filled an order for Messrs. Wheeler & Lynde, of the Whig and Courier, they have kindly permitted their Tables to be examined at their office.

The Company can also supply almost any quantity and size of Roofing Slate, and solicit orders in any of the branches of their business. Specimens at their office. Apply to C. D. ABBOT, Lower Steamboat (Coe's) Wharf, Bangor, Maine.

PATENT SOLID COTTON BELTING!

HAVING received the Agency for the sale of this Belting, the subscriber would call the attention of Mill Owners, Machinists, and others interested in the use of an efficient and cheap Belt to samples which may be seen at his counting-room, Lower Steamboat (Coe's) Wharf.

This Belting is formed by weaving several layers of Duck solid in one body, and like leather it partakes of the strain in all its parts, and gives a gain of power over every other kind in passing the pulley. It is especially adapted for open belts, and for heavy and main Belts, while its elasticity allows it to be used on very small pulleys and where quick speed is required. It can be made of any desired length without lap or joint. The cost of this Belting being about one half that of leather, will recommend it to the attention of every customer. Any width, from 1 to 28 inches, furnished, and extra width and thickness made to order.

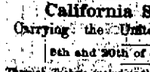
Through Tickets, including that meals of the Isthmus via Panama.



On account of the numerous frauds and impositions practiced upon travelers, those bound to California are cautioned to buy Tickets at the only authorized Agencies of the United States Mail Line, as below:

By order of the Post-master General of the United States Mail Steamers will hereafter be despatched from New York to Aspinwall, on the 5th and 20th of each month.

Passengers are landed at the Railroad Depot, Aspinwall, and conveyed across to the Pacific Steamers without extra expense. This is the only line having through Tickets, guaranteeing position on the Isthmus.

Transit made in four hours precisely by daylight, thus avoiding the great exposure by night in open boats to fever and ague, and the malaria of dangerous lakes and river navigation, over rocks and roads.

Arrangements have now been completed so that the regular U. S. Pacific Mail Steamer will leave Panama, for San Francisco immediately on the arrival of the Atlantic Mails and passengers, thus securing passengers by the Mail Line's sure and short passage with the most comfortable route.

Tickets must be signed by one of the Company's Agents before they will be recognized by the Agent at Panama, and tickets thus signed can be obtained of the only authorized Agents for the U. S. and Pacific Mail Steamship Companies, in this city of

VEGETABLE

BITTERS.

THE Public is here presented with a new Tonic, Alterative, and Cordial Bitter, compounded by Dr. Mowes, of Boston, Physician, and proprietor of Mowes celebrated Cough Balsam. These Bitters are purely vegetable, as is testified by the distinguished chemist to whom they were submitted for analysis. They are both highly useful in the prompt and healing to the stomach, agreeable as a beverage, and efficacious as a medicine. They are fully equal to the Hostetter and most renowned liquor in flavor and color. Those in want of an appetizer will find in them and those afflicted with biliousness, general debility, lingering blood, with sour stomach, general debility, or the weakness, and other like ailments, will find in these Bitters instant relief. Travelers will find them a charming cordial for sea sickness. They are an antidote against counterfeits, these Bitters are protected by the District Court of the United States. The following certificates from an eminent physician and a distinguished merchant of Boston, speak in sufficient guaranty of the quality of these Bitters:—

BOSTON, August 1, 1858.

DR. DANIEL MOWE,

Dear Sir—Having subjected the sample of Vegetable Bitters received from you to the most careful chemical analysis, I am satisfied that they contain no test trace of any other than purely vegetable ingredients in them.

I know of no medical compound likely to be more beneficial as a tonic, sedative and alterative than your Vegetable Bitters.

Very respectfully yours,
CHARLES T. JENNEY, Chemist,
139 Washington street, Bos on.

BOSTON, August 4, 1858.

DR. DANIEL MOWE,

My Dear Sir:—Leave given the sample of Bitters you left with me to test, a careful analysis, and find it to be composed of only such vegetable ingredients as are highly prized by our profession for their tonic and medical properties. The formula submitted to me by you I found to be skillfully and scientifically combination of valuable vegetable agents.

Yours, very truly &c.,
C. M. WILKINS, M. D.,

American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington (under the Act of 1837,)

76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also, in France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patent, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into the American or Foreign works to determine the validity or utility of any pretended Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by return mail for One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it Inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed, by if not unsurpassably superior to, any which can be elected them, elsewhere. The facilities obtained by my long practice and special study of the principles and modes of proceeding which lead to success in obtaining Patents, enable me to secure to Inventors that they will find the BITTERS the best and surest of restoratives. Very few medicines are sanctioned by the faculty of physicians as a tonic to be administered during the period of nursing; and this has obtained universal preference.

☞ Those who desire to purchase this great remedy for Dyspepsia and Debility, should remember the precise title, Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters. It is put up in quart bottles, with the name, Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, blown in the bottle, and a steel plate engraving on the cap covering the cork, with the autograph of Hostetter & Smith on the label. These bottles are important, on account of the numerous counterfeits now in the market.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa., and sold by all Druggists, Grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

Sold, wholesale and retail, by B. F. Bradbury and N. S. Harlow, Bangor; at retail by H. F. Kimball, Oldtown; S. Hubbard, Dexter; H. K. Parker, Buckspoit.

[From the Providence Advertiser.]

THE foreign and domestic demand for Perry Davis & Son's green medicine—the Pain Killer—was never before so large as it has been of late; and we have at times been hardly able to supply it as fast as made, without a moment's intermission. Here in the City of Providence, in the State of Rhode Island, of the United States of America, has furnished the public with a medicine, which, in the opinion of universally, of common, and of all classes, complete of leisure for all the purposes for which it was designed, and widespread enduring popularity, has never been excelled by any patented medicine invented and issued either in Europe or America.

The universality of the demand for the Pain Killer is a novel, interesting, and surprising feature in the history of this medicine. It is now regularly packed, sent and sold, in large and steadily increasing quantities, not only to every State and Territory of the Union, and every Province of British America, but to Buenos Ayres, Brazil, Uruguay, Peru, Chili and other South American States; to the Sandwich Islands; to Cuba and other West India Islands; to England and Continental Europe; to Mozambique, Madagascar, Zanzibar and other African lands; to Australia, Singapore, Mauritius and to Calcutta, Rangoon and other places in India; it has also been sent to China, and no doubt it there is any foreign port in the world where the genuine article which has never been introduced and been sought after by the people. Very few people have any idea of the vast amount of business done by the proprietors of the Pain Killer.

The extent of its usefulness is another great feature of the remarkable medicine. It is not only the best known and most popular remedy for Dysentery or cholera, or any sort of bowel complaint, but is recently unsurpassed for efficacy and rapidity of action, in the cure of a variety of painful forms of Colds, and in the West India Islands, and other like climates, it has become the standard medicine for all such complaints, and for dyspepsia, liver complaints, and other kindred disorders. For coughs and colds, canker, asthma, and rheumatic difficulties, it has been proved by the most abundant and convincing trials, and testimony, to be most invaluable medicine. The proprietors have in possession letters from persons of the highest character and responsibility, certifying in unequivocal terms, to the cures effected, and the benefits conferred, by its use in an almost endless variety of cases, by the use of this great medicine.

We are not mistaken in saying that no medicine has ever gained a popularity so strong, so extensive, and so enduring. Other preparations, in imitation of it, and containing some of the ingredients composing it, have, by a most extravagant advertising and deceptive statements, gained a short lived patronage; but their inefficacy and worthlessness soon became known, and they have received disastrous speculations to their originators and proprietors. The Pain Killer alone has been found the reliable remedy for the complaints and emergencies for which it is intended. Whether in sickness and suffering, and a fortune to its worthy proprietors; and no one will deny that they are, in every sense of the word, public benefactors. Much make a better use of their large means, and none more truly generous and benevolent. No one that wants to save a few cents should buy good fortune, for it is believed that they have not been sold.

Sold, wholesale and retail, by W. L. Alden & Co., Union Block, and N. S. Harlow, No. 4 Smith's Block, Bangor.
